

K-9 Amos was Sandy Springs first canine. Amos served as a narcotics detection, tracking criminal apprehensions and evidence recovery canine from 2006 until August 2009 were he was retired after being diagnosed with cancer. Canine Amos served as a charter member canine when the police department was formed.